

South African Institute of Foundrymen

Extended Deadline for Registrations

Dear Members of the Industry,

To ensure all interested individuals have an opportunity to enrol, The South African Institute of Foundrymen (SAIF) has extended the registration deadline for the below mentioned courses to Monday, 09 June 2025

We can also confirm the start and end dates for our Q2 training program:

- Training Commences: Saturday, June 21, 2025
- Training Concludes: Saturday, August 30, 2025

These courses offer invaluable knowledge and practical skills tailored for the foundry industry. Given the limited number of seats available, we encourage you to register promptly to avoid disappointment.

The detailed course curriculums can be viewed on our website at the following links:

- Fettling
- Moulding & Moulding Sands
- Quality Control

Cost per student: SAIF members R3650.00 / Non-members R3950.00

We will also be facilitating the Business Finance and Accounting in Foundries Short Course, aimed at Non-Financial operators in the Foundry Sector.

Cost per student: SAIF members R4250.00 / Non-members R4550.00

We recognize the growing demand for accessible education and are diligently developing an online platform to extend these valuable learning opportunities to those outside the Gauteng region. Currently, our focus is on delivering an immersive, face-to-face educational experience. Rest assured, we will provide timely updates as our digital training initiatives progress.
